Outdoor Leadership
Camp

Program Summary:

Join a small group of teens from around the world who, like you are ready to explore and challenge themselves beyond a typical camp experience. You will learn important leadership, teamwork, personal responsibilty, outdoor and safety skills as you experience new adventure activities and overnight camping in world- renowned national parks in Canadian Rocky Moutains.

Outdoor Leadership Campers will explore and reflect on their perosnal strengths, how they relate with others and the environment around them. Campers will also learn skills like wilderness training, kayaking, rock climbing, whitewater rafting, orienteering and mountain biking. Our staff to campers ratio is 1 : 7 and maximum ratio will be 1: 8.

Along the way, campers also develop even more valuable leadership skills including:

- Teamwork
- Collaboration
- Goal setting and planning
- Confidence
- Cross- cultural communication
- Time management
- Critical thinking
- Safety and risk management
- Self - awareness and discovery
