Leadership is more than a skill, it's a mindset. At the Tamwood Leadership Academy with Disney, students explore leadership through the lens of innovation, storytelling, and STEM. By engaging with Disney's creative environment and the University of Central Florida (UCF), students gain insights into how leaders shape experiences, solve problems, and inspire change.

WHAT STUDENTS WILL LEARN

- ★ Leadership principles and personal development, including how to lead with empathy, creativity, and confidence.
- ★ Innovation and storytelling techniques, inspired by Disney Imagineers, using design thinking and immersive storytelling.
- ★ STEM-based problem solving, exploring how science, technology, engineering, and math are used to create real-world experiences.
- ★ Team collaboration and communication, applying strategies for building high-performing, diverse teams.
- ★ Creative and critical thinking, through hands-on design challenges and project-based learning.
- ★ Public speaking and presentation skills, with opportunities to pitch ideas and showcase leadership projects.

Students participate in interactive workshops, behind-the-scenes tours, and mentorship sessions at Disney and University of Central Florida. Each day includes hands-on activities, leadership challenges, and reflection exercises. Instructors include educators and professionals with experience in leadership, education, and entertainment.
